

RESOURCES FOR CONSULTATION AND REFERRAL (For use with Faculty & Staff of concern)

	EAP Helpline 645-4500	University Police 645-2222	Supervisor	EDAAA 645-2266
I know a faculty or staff member who:*	In case of emergency, call 716-645-2222 - University Police.
Poses an immediate threat to self or others		•
Carries a weapon		•
Writes or verbalizes a direct threat to another person	•	•	•
Discusses planned or fantasized violent acts	•	•	•
Exhibits behaviors of concern that may be disability related	•		•	•
Discusses use of or access to weapons	•	•	•
Is a victim of sexual assault	•	•
Continuously disrupts work and refuses to stop	•		•
Displays anger or hostility inappropriately	•	•	•
Talks about homicide or suicide	•	•	•
Is a victim of violence, stalking, intimidation or domestic abuse	•	•	•
Exhibits behavior that seems bizarre or out of touch with reality	•	•	•
Seems overly emotional, e.g., aggressive, depressed, demanding or suspicious	•		•
Is the subject of complaints by co-workers regarding behaviors	•		•
Comes to work under influence of drugs or alcohol	•		•
Shows signs of alcohol or drug abuse	•		•
Is having difficulty due to a life event, such as illness or death of a family member or coworker	•		•
Reports sexual harassment or civil rights discrimination	•	•	•	•
Exhibits racial or religious prejudice or intolerant attitudes toward other groups	•	•	•	•

*Choice of contact may be based on level of threat

Employee Assistance Program

Equity, Diversity and Affirmative Action

Threat Levels

Low: Poses minimal risk to victim and public safety

Medium: Threat which could be carried out, although may not appear realistic

High: Appears to pose imminent and serious danger to safety of others

Concerned about a non-UB community member on campus? Call University Police.

University Police are available 24 hours/every day, dial 716/645-2222

EAP Helpline is available 24 hours/every day, dial 716/645-4500