

RESOURCES FOR CONSULTATION AND REFERRAL (For use with Students of concern)

	VP Student Affairs 645-2982	UB Police 645-2222	Student Advocate Helpline 645-4444	Counseling Services 645-2720	Intercultural & Diversity Center 645-2055	EDAAA  645-2266	Disability Services 645-2608
I know a student who ... *		UB Police are available 24 hours/every day. In case of emergency, call 645-2222
Possesses an immediate threat to self or others		•
Writes or verbalizes a direct threat to another person	•	•	•	•
Carries a weapon, discusses or has access to weapons	•	•
Discusses, planned or fantasized violent acts	•	•		•
Displays anger or hostility inappropriately	•		•	•
Talks about homicide or suicide	•	•	•	•
Exhibits behavior that seems bizarre or out of touch with reality	•	•	•	•
Is a victim of sexual assault	•	•	•	•
Seems overly emotional, e.g., aggressive, depressed, demanding, or suspicious	•	•	•	•
Continuously disrupts class and refuses to stop	•	•	•
Is the subject of complaints by other students regarding behaviors	•		•	•
Comes to class drunk or high	•		•	•
Shows signs of alcohol or drug abuse	•		•	•
Is a victim of violence, stalking, intimidation or domestic abuse	•	•	•	•
Is having difficulty due to illness or death of a friend or family member	•		•	•
Exhibits behaviors of concern that may relate to a disability			•				•
Reports sexual harassment or civil rights discrimination	•	•	•		•	•
Violates principles of community or commits a biased-based behavior	•		•			•
Is a victim of biased-based behavior	•	•	•	•	•	•

* Choice of contact may be based on level of threat

 Judicial Affairs & Student Advocacy, 645-6154

 Equity, Diversity and Affirmative Action, 645-2266

UB Student Support Locations:

Counseling Services:

120 Richmond • (716) 645-2720

University Police:

Bissell Hall • (716) 645-2222 or any emergency blue light phone

Student Affairs/VP Office:

542 Capen • (716) 645-2982

Disability Services:

25 Capen Hall • (716) 645-2608

Equity, Diversity, and Affirmative Action Administration:

406 Capen • (716) 645-2266

Intercultural & Diversity Center:

240 Student Union • (716) 645-2055

Judicial Affairs & Student Advocacy:

252 Capen Hall • (716) 645-6154

Threat Levels

Low: Poses minimal risk to victim and public safety

Medium: Threat which could be carried out, although may not appear realistic

High: Appears to pose imminent and serious danger to safety of others

University Police are available 24 hours every day.

Dial (716) 645-2222 or pick up any emergency blue light phone.

Counseling Services is available 24 hours every day. Dial (716) 645-2720.

After hours, contact the University Police and they will locate the counselor on call.

Concerned about a non-UB community member on campus? Call University Police.