

RESOURCES FOR CONSULTATION AND REFERRAL (for students of concern)

	Choice of contact may be based on level of threat
	Low: Poses minimal risk to victim and public safety
	Medium: Threat which could be carried out, although may not appear realistic
	High: Appears to pose imminent and serious danger to safety of others
I know a student who ...	Accessibility Resources 25 Capen Hall 645-2608	Intercultural & Diversity Center 240 S. Union 645-2055	Equity, Diversity & Inclusion 406 Capen Hall 645-2266	Students of Concern Helpline 645-4444	Counseling Services 120 Richmond 645-2720	Student Affairs 520 Capen Hall 645-2982	University Police Bissell Hall 645-2222
Poses an immediate threat to self or others							•
Writes or verbalizes a direct threat to another person				•	•	•	•
Carries a weapon, discusses or has access to weapons						•	•
Discussed, planned, or fantasized violent acts					•	•	•
Displays anger or hostility inappropriately				•	•	•
Talks about homicide or suicide				•	•	•	•
Exhibits behavior that seems bizarre or out of touch with reality				•	•	•	•
Is a victim of sexual assault				•	•	•	•
Seems overly emotional, e.g. aggressive, depressed, demanding, or suspicious				•	•	•	•
Continuously disrupts class and refuses to stop				•		•	•
Is the subject of complaints by other students regarding behaviors				•	•	•	•
Comes to class drunk or high				•	•	•	•
Shows signs of alcohol or drug abuse				•	•	•	•
Is a victim of violence, stalking, intimidation or domestic abuse				•	•	•	•
Is having difficulty due to illness or death of a friend or family member				•		•	•
Exhibits behaviors of concern that may relate to a disability	•
Reports sexual harassment or civil rights discrimination		•	•			•	•
Violates principles of community or commits a biased-based behavior			•			•	•
Is a victim of biased-based behavior		•	•	•	•	•	•

University Police are available 24 hours every day. Dial (716) 645-2222 or pick up any emergency blue light phone.

Counseling Services is available 24 hours every day. Dial (716) 645-2720. After hours, contact the University Police and they will locate the counselor on call.

To report a concern anonymously, visit www.upolice.buffalo.edu/silentwitness